

WAGNER
SOCIETY
nsw

SPECIAL EVENT: 14 JULY 2013

Dear Members and friends

Riding the Storm : A Voyage Through Wagner's Flying Dutchman

The NSW Wagner Society invites you to an afternoon voyage, sailing at 1.00pm on Sunday 14th July, from its berth at the Willoughby Uniting Church Conference Centre, 10 Clanwilliam St, Willoughby.

The voyage will offer passengers insights into The Flying Dutchman, which the Sydney Symphony is mounting in concert performances later in the month.

It will be ably steered by Dr David Larkin, popular young musicologist at the Sydney Conservatorium and feature insights from him and a crew of leading Sydney academics and music practitioners, including the Wagner Society's own Dr Colleen Chesterman. There will be performances from some young Australian musicians. Passengers may be requested to keep the ship afloat musically to allow it to return to port safely by 5 or 5.30pm.

Fares:

- $ 45 Members & Sydney Philharmonia singers
- $ 55 Non members
- $ 30 Students

Please register your attendance at our contact page on our website:

www.wagner.org.au

www.wagner.org.au/site/index.php?option=com_contact&view=contact&id=1&Itemid=95

Please note the change to the time and venue

1:00	Welcome	Wagner Society in NSW
1:15	The Dutchman and Wagner's First Maturity	Dr David Larkin, Sydney Conservatorium of Music
2:15	Die Frist ist um	Eugene Raggio, Bass
2:30	BREAK
2:45	The Scenography of Inner and Outer Worlds: Landscape within the characterisation of people and the representation of place	Professor Benedict Anderson Faculty of Design, Architecture and Building University of Technology, Sydney
3:15	Senta's Dream	Dramatic Soprano, Emilie Lemasson
3.30	Strong Nordic Lass or Dangerous Dreamer: Changes in the representation of Senta	Dr Colleen Chesterman
4:00	BREAK
4:15	Conducting the Chorus: Page to Stage	Anthony Pasquill, Chorus Master
4:45	AFTERNOON TEA	